

IT.

Entered at the post-office in Lawrenceburg, Ky., as second-class mail matter.

O. Coleman Cox, Editor.
W. P. Marsh, Assistant Editor.
Morton Green, Publisher.

Its matter is original, and cannot be found elsewhere.

Its watchword is "Onward and Upward." It presents something new, novel and entertaining each and every week.

It is the People's Paper.

TERMS: 50 cents per year in advance.

Advertising rates on application.

Thursday, February 19, 1903.

Announcements.

For Representative.

Paynter. We are authorized to announce Dr. C. M. PAYNTER as a candidate for re-election to the office of Representative from Anderson county in the Lower House of the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Champion. We are authorized to announce M. C. CHAMPION as a candidate for Representative from Anderson county in the Lower House of the next General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Last week a gentleman from Alton came to me and wanted to know what money it would take to buy my paper, or rather my editorial column, for Mr. J. B. Chenault in his race for State Auditor. He stated that he had been sent to me by other parties, and was not interested in the least himself, and I believe his statements about that part of the matter, for I had already learned that a certain gentleman of Alton had called to see me a few days previous after having been unsuccessful in his attempt to buy Mr. Hawkins, of the News. I do not know Mr. Chenault, only through an introduction to him on our streets here by Mr. Hiter Crockett, of Frankfort. I was favorably impressed with him, and being a great friend of Mr. Crockett's, I promised him my vote in his race. But if he or his workers think that they can go about buying up newspaper editors like sheep, they have missed their guess. While I have at all times, since the starting of this paper, refrained from voicing the sentiments of any party or candidate, and expect to do the same in the future, I cannot but remember the insult that Mr. Chenault's workers have thrown at me, and I am confident that they have gained little, and my memory will be refreshed of their attempt to buy up the press of this county when I read the name of Judge S. W. Hager on the ballot handed me by the clerk of the election on the morning of May 9th.

We have repeatedly suggested to the ministers and deacons of the many churches of our city that they furnish us each week with the name of minister, subject, and, in fact, any other announcements that would be of interest to the church-going people of the city. We get their promises, but that is all; and no one knows, when they go to church on Sunday, whether the regular minister or a visitor is to occupy the pulpit, what subject has been chosen, or, in fact, anything else regarding the doings at God's house. These are matters that the public are interested in, and so long as we are only too glad to give the space necessary, it does look like the church workers should give the matter some thought. This shall be our last request, and if you do not get the announcements from now on, remember that it is through no fault of ours, but the fault of insufficient interest taken by the ministers and church workers in not making more of an effort to get the people out to worship on Sunday, or at prayer-meetings during the week.

Mr. W. O. Jones, who was for some time located here, was in town Saturday to see his old friends. Mr. Jones is one of the best trainers of running horses in the State, and at present has charge of McBrayer Moore's string of fast ones. Bill is much in love with Lawrenceburg, and his greatest wish is to be able to spend the rest of his days here, and he says that should fate so make that impossible, and death overtake him, he wants to be buried here by those friends he loves so well.

A Richmond correspondent for a Louisville paper states that, while two men were drunk, one shot the other to death and then killed himself, and then the writer adds that the cause of killing was unknown. Looks to us that any sane man would not need more than three guesses at that problem.

Each day's advertising has the accumulated force of all that have gone before. Don't spend twenty cents for a four-line local and expect it to crowd your store.

A nice set of Table Glasses for 15c. at Mahan & McAfee's.

Another Mad Dog Bites a Child at Van Buren.

On last Thursday, the little eight-year-old son of Mrs. Ide Long, of Van Buren, was brought to this place to have the mad stone applied to a wound on his hand made by a rabid dog some days past. When the stone was applied, it adhered one hour and forty minutes.

Last week we published an article, and, in fact, there has scarcely been an issue of this paper gotten out in the three months it has been issued, that has not contained an article about people being bitten by mad dogs. Is it not high time that the good people of the county shoulder arms and go on a dog hunt and kill everyone to be found? The time of year is now near at hand for the reports to be coming in of sheep being killed, and now would be a good time to put a stop to such losses. You may have dogs that you are fond of, and, by them like by your children, you think there is no wrong that they could do. Both have happened. People who have dogs of value should keep them chained or housed, and held personally responsible for damage to property and loss of life, and to all others that are not so kept, a "button" or a load of shot given.

Kills Two Birds with One Stone.

Last week three negroes got into a fight over a game of craps here in town and the "cuss" words were freely passed until the street was reached, when one negro whose name is said to be McKee, picked up a brick and told the two who were following him up to cease their pursuit. This they failed to do, and he let fly the brick, which struck one of the negroes in the head and bounded over to the cranium of the other, which sent both down "for the count." No arrests were made, as few saw the "scrap," and the ones who were taking part in it swore out no warrants.

W. H. Morgan & wife were here the first of the week visiting relatives. Mr. Morgan is one of Harrodsburg most popular grocerymen, though a former resident of this county.

Use Bond's Cream Flour.

More Room Needed.

If the congressional committee on Public Buildings & Grounds could have had a view of our Postoffice lobby as it appeared on last Sunday morning while the mail from Louisville was being distributed, the Omnibus Bill reported a few weeks since, would certainly have contained an appropriation for this city. While there were not more than twenty people in the lobby, it was almost impossible for one to pass from the door to the boxes, and any thing like freedom of movement was out of the question.

There has been so many in to tell us what to tell others, through our paper, how to manage the turnpikes; how to build them; how to get the rock; how to make cuts that won't wash and fills that will stand, that we have just decided to call on any and all who have suggestions to make, and we will gladly give the space for their publication. Now let us hear from you.

The law and order sermons, which were preached in Louisville Sunday week, did much good, as we note from the papers of that city that only two murders were committed there during the week.

Only seven people have been bitten by mad dogs in this county during the past week. Don't you think it is about time to do a little dog killing in this county?

Speer & Mountjoy bought of Virgil Watson, of Ninevah, a pair of three year old horse mules for $275.

Morgan & Hyatt bought of Franklin Bros., of Camden, a fine pair of horse mules for $300.

"IT" and the Weekly Cincinnati Enquirer one year for $1.25. A great combination of county and outside news.

A nice line of Razors to close out below cost price.

MAHAN & MCAFEE.

The good kind of Evaporated Peaches, 8½c. a pound. BLUE GRASS GROCERY CO.

Something new in a Bowl and Pitcher. 15c.

MAHAN & MCAFEE.